Elf Magic

With a holiday season full of early morning door buster sales, extra-long wish lists, office parties, and preparing meals for 20, the true meaning of Christmas can get lost in the flurry of activity. A visit from one of Santa's plush Elf Magic™ Elves is a great way to bring wonder, magic, and meaning back into Christmas.

Elf Magic Elves, sent by Santa to visit children during the Christmas season, truly become a child's best friend and a part of the family in a way that is simply "magic"! While their primary mission is to spread joy, love, and kindness, they are also known to embark on adventures during the night. When children awake in the morning, they're excited and surprised to find out what their Elf has been doing all night. These adventures, or "Elfcapades," can be helpful—like doing a child's chores, or silly—like getting stuck in a cereal box.

Elf Magic is the booming tradition of Santa's Magic Elves who have been visiting children's homes for over 50 years during the Christmas season. The visiting Elf comes to life at night to embark on all kinds of adventures- the remnants of which surprise children when they awake the next morning. Elf Magic Elves are also very sweet and “So, go visit

for Christmas and teach what I’ve taught;
That the best gifts are those
that can never be bought!
That Christmas is brighter and dreams will come true
if you share love and kindness in all that you do.”

enjoy being held and loved throughout the day. While some of the Elves have mischievous streaks from time to time, Santa knows which Elf will be the best fit for each family. So whether a family wants excitement or simple companionship from their Elf, Santa will make sure the right Elf arrives at their home.

Through the years, families create lasting memories of the Elfcapade adventures, and children young and old look forward to the annual visits from the adventurous Elves, but it is the bond of friendship that is created with the Elves that the family will remember and treasure forever. Despite the hustle and bustle of the Christmas season, the Elves bring families together and remind them that Christmas is about much more than just gifts.
